A SEETHING, SURGING MASS OF HAPPY HUMANITY CELEBRATES

Line of the Parade Thronged With People This Afternoon, Including Thousands From Out of Town.

MANY FLOATS ARE IN LINE.

Keystone Lumber Company Presents a Replica of the Old Suspension Bridge—Officials of Both Towns and Prominent Citizens Ride.

It is a debatable question whether the crowds in town today are as large as during the Centennial.
It is believed by many there are more people here than at any one day of the Centennial and it is no exaggeration to say that the visitors from many thousands. Not only in Connellsville but in New Haven the onlookers were dense.

The line of march followed by the parade this afternoon was backed by a surging, seething mass of humanity and the officers had a hard time keeping a way open for the pike. The parade started shortly after 1.30 this afternoon a delay being caused by the arrival of the Uniontown delegation, this being at 1.30 and who did not arrive until after that time.

The parade was about a mile long.
It was composed of carriages carrying distinguished guests and citizens of Fayette county, delegations of many fraternal societies and floats, wagons and persons on horseback. Some of the floats were decidedly unique, but the palm could probably be awarded the Keystone Lumber Company, which presented a replica of the famous old suspension bridge that once spanned the Youghiogheny river. This float was complete in every detail, even down to the switchbox at this end of the structure. This was occupied for many years by Clay Whaley.

Many bands are in town today and these were all very well. The Twenty-Second Regiment's band of Uniontown, Susquehanna's Italian band of Connellsville, the old Craft Martial Band and the Dunbar band. These include the finest musical organizations in the county.

The parade was led by a string of carriages. Burgess, A. D. Solson and George A. Markle of Connellsville and New Haven, and Presidents of Council George Porter and Edgar Cyrenus had seats of honor. Connellsville school directors, ministers, and prominent citizens of both towns rode in the parade.

Congressman A. J. Barabfield, the leading speaker of the afternoon, rode in a "landau" accompanied by President P. S. Newmyer of the Youghiogheny Bridge Company and H. M.
Kephart.

THE BIG NOISE.

Sharply at 12.01 Last Midnight Announced the Freedom of the Youghiogheny Bridge.

A noise as big as that which ushered in the Centennial last year, announced to the citizens of Connellsville and New Haven, and the Yough region generally, promptly at 12.01 last night that the Youghiogheny bridge between Connellsville and New Haven had been declared free of tolls.

Hundreds of residents in both towns remained up for the hour when the bridge would become free and those that had fallen asleep were apprised of the fact that the long cherished hour had arrived by the shriek of whistles and the cheers of the crowds on the streets. The midnight celebration continued for more than an hour. Some of it was still under way at daylight.

SOUVENIRS

Of the Celebration in the Form of Bridge Tickets Issued by Treasurer Kell Long.

Kell Long, former Treasurer of the Youghiogheny Bridge Company, this morning was liberal in his distribution of bridge tickets. He passed them around among his friends with a lavish hand. The tickets were formerly worth about a cent each and were not good unless signed "K. Long, Treasurer." This morning any old ticket was good, even a beer check.

J. R. Baisley is also passing around souvenirs in the form of the backs of bridge ticket books.

Poor Farm for McKeesport.
McKeesport's Select Council last night adopted a resolution to purchase a poor farm at Elizabeth.

IN TOWN WITH RELIC.

M. F. H. Farmer Brings Compass from Masonstown.

M. F. H. Farmer of Masonstown came to Connellsville this morning with his famous Rittenhouse compass, a mate to the compass owned and used by George Washington. Both compasses were made at the same time and are 150 years old.

Mr. Farmer was invited to take the compass to the Jamestown Exposition. Last year he came to the Centennial with it, walking all the way from Masonstown.

PROOF POSITIVE.

William Smith Took a Penny and Proved Eight Times That the Bridge Is Free.

William Smith, a colored man of New Haven, took keen enjoyment out of the liberation of the bridge between Connellsville and New Haven early this morning. With a penny he made eight trips over and when the last trip was made he pocketed the last penny used as a toll piece on the bridge. Smith was up early this morning and came down intent upon taking a constitutional.

He strolled along the bridge and when he came to the toll house took off his hat, bowed and laid down a penny, then continued his way over.
Reaching the end of the bridge he came back, picked up his penny and with much ceremony laid it down again before an imaginary toll keeper.
This enjoyment he repeated for eight trips. The penny gave him an actual idea of the great enjoyment to be gained from not having to part with a penny every time he crossed the bridge.

RUNAWAY AUTO.

Frank Husband of Mt. Pleasant Dashes
Through Crowd on Main Street.

A big red auto coming down the Main street hill and dashing without any warning through the throngs that filled the street caused consternation shortly after noon today. Chief of Police B. Rottler and Policeman Thomas McDonald arrested the driver of the car, in which the latter was alone.

The driver gave his name as Frank Husband of Mt. Pleasant. He said that the machine got away from him, that he became rattled and was not able to get his foot on the horn to sound an alarm. He was released upon putting up a forfeit.

MCCLENATHAN'S HOME.

Mrs. McClenathan Stood the Journey Remarkably Well.

Dr. and Mrs. J. C. McClenathan of South Pittsburgh street arrived home this morning on the Duquesne after an absence of several months in Ireland. Mrs. McClenathan stood the trip remarkably well and while her recovery is very slow there are now bright prospects for her.

For the past two weeks they have been in Philadelphia with Mrs. Mc-Clenathan's brother, Dr. Hugh Hanna.
Dr. and Mrs. McClenathan left last summer for a visit on the continent.
Near Dublin, Ireland, Mrs. McClen-athan was stricken and they never got farther on their tour.

COURT ADJOURNED FOR CELEBRATION.

Motion for Non-Suit in Cossell Case Overruled.

CLAIMS MADE BY THE DEFENSE.

Say Ladder Was Blown Over on Girl and That Union Supply Company Was Not Responsible—Routine Matters of Court.

UNIONTOWN, Oct. 1.—Court adjourning at 11 o'clock this morning to enable those who desired to attend the free bridge celebration at the Center of the Ohio Region. There were no cases before Judge E. H. Repper, whose court did no business with the case of Margaret Cossell against the Union Supply Company was still on when 11 o'clock came in Judge Umel's room.

At the conclusion of the plaintiff's case, Attorneys Van Swearingen and Howell of the defense moved for a compulsory non-suit, which was overruled. The defense then presented witnesses to show that the Cossell girl is not as badly hurt as she represents, and further to show that the accident was not caused by any negligence on the part of the company.

The Cossell girl seeks to recover damages for injuries received by being struck by a ladder which fell from the front of the Broad Ford store of the Union Supply Company. The defense claims that the ladder was blown over by a wind, but the plaintiff says it was knocked over when it was struck by an awning.

A motion for a new trial has been made by Ruth Hugh and others in their suit against Ella Hugh and others, which is an action to recover a strip of land in Georges township.

John I. Watson of Wheeler wants a divorce from Myrtle May Watson, to whom he was married June 5, 1906.
Dissolution from August 10, 1906, is charged.

John H. Stillwagon has brought suit against T. L. Hammett to recover $151.25 with interest, alleged to be due for laboring work at a sawmill in Springfield township.

In a bill of particulars, John Heile, who is suing the Pennsylvania railroad for injuries alleged to have been sustained in a wreck between Latrobe and Greensburg, the plaintiff says he does not recall the exact time of the wreck. The company has no record on the date named by Heile.

The following Notary Public commissions have been received: Miss Pearl Robinson and Antonio Bastone, Connellsville; John S. Griffiths, Brownsville.

Will Meet Edwards.
Al. Martin, who is meeting all comers at the carnival in New Haven at 133 pounds, will box Kid Edwards of Brooklyn this afternoon and may go on again this evening if the bout is interesting.

Warmer Tonight.
Increasing cloudiness and warmer tonight is the noon weather bulletin.

MIDNIGHT SCENES ON OLD BRIDGE

When Pandemonium of Whistles Announced Freedom Things Happened.

STATE COPS SAVED TOLL HOUSE

Rather Good Natured Crowd Thought It Would Be Appropriate to Consign It to Depths of the Yough Some Honors Claimed.

The State Constabulary saved the toll house on the Yough bridge from annihilation at the hands of a merry band of free bridge advocates and enthusiasts shortly after last midnight.
They had gathered on the bridge shortly before 12 o'clock to be ready for the first free trip and the last one when fare had to be paid. The toll-keepers held right on to their job to the last, too. Theodore P. White and James Wilkey made the last collections.

When the whistles cut loose there was a mad surging about the toll house by the crowd. Suddenly someone appeared with a crow bar, others with axes and sledge hammers. A suggestion was made to dump the toll house into the Bare Devil Yough and it was about to be put into execution when Sergeant Jacobs and several

CHILDREN SING AND WELCOME EXTENDED TO GUESTS OF CITY.

Big Throng at the Carnegie Free Library Grounds This Morning Witnessed First of Program.

BURGESS' SOISSON'S ADDRESS.

Turns Over Keys of the City to Its Visitors—Rev. J. J. Huston Talks on Free Bridge and Education—Music by the Many Bands.

The Yough bridge is free and Connellsville and New Haven, in gala attire, are celebrating the day to its fullest extent. Thousands of people are on the streets to contribute their small mite to the jollity of the occasion. Street barkers, with souvenirs of all sorts for sale, bunch stands and other wandering menials who visit towns on such occasions, are made in evidence. Out for a good time is the cry, and a good time it is for everyone. The day is ideal for such an occasion. After gloomy weather for the better part of the week it cleared up during the night and is just cool enough to keep folks lively.

Brief exercises were held this morning at the Carnegie Free Library.
Over 2,000 school children and fully 3,000 spectators participated. Five bands contributed to the loud noises, and pandemonium on a main scale lasted for over an hour. Shortly after 10 o'clock the consolidated bands accompanied the school chorus in singing "America," and then A. D. Sol-son was introduced as the Burgess of Greater Connellsville by President Harry Duff of the Connellsville and New Haven Merchants' Association for a formal address of welcome. He said:

"We are assembled today to celebrate with appropriate ceremonies an event of great importance to our community, the freeing of the bridge between Connellsville and New Haven to free traveling public."

"I shall not endeavor to go back into the history of the toll bridge, but rather with extend a few words of kindly welcome to the many strangers who have accepted our invitation to assist in celebrating this important event."
The merchants and business men of Connellsville and New Haven have been diligent and persevering in their efforts to provide a free bridge at this point and their success is a just cause for jubilation.

Let us rejoice that the toll house on yonder bridge's old site has been removed and that we are now free to move pass to and fro freely and without interruption of any kind.

It is a great victory for those who have fought the battle, and the people who walk or drive will appreciate most sincerely the service that has been rendered them.

For the people of Connellsville I desire to thank the Merchants' Association, the County Court, the County Commissioners, the Youghiogheny Bridge Company and all others who have contributed in any way toward making free to the public the bridge that has for 107 years been a menace and a barrier to the progress and improvement of our community.

I thank the children of our public schools for their services and hope that in after years they will realize and appreciate the acts of their fathers today.

Our guests and welcome I extend a cordial greeting. I welcome to our city and hope you will have a pleasant time on this day of celebration.

Loud applause followed. Burgess Solson's genial welcome, and then
"Way Down Upon the Youghiogheny" was sung by the children. Prof.
A. B. Morton led the children and their work was the result of strenuous training on short notice. The songs of the children were exceptionally well rendered.

Rev. J. J. Huston, a member of Town Council, made a brief address.
Rev. Huston's remarks were principally along the line of educational work. He dwelt upon the importance of our many schools to the 20,000,000 school children scattered throughout the United States. He also dwelt upon the benefits that will accrue from the free bridge, and commended the public sentiment of this vicinity for so heartily entering into the celebration. The exercises were concluded shortly before noon.

There were nearly 2,500 school children in the chorus. Of these 300 came from New Haven, 200 from South Connellsville and 225 from the local private schools. The South Side building in town contributed 225 children to swell the chorus and the Second ward building sent a like delegation.
About 450 were from the old Fourth ward, 150 from the High School and 300 from the Third ward. The French Regiment Band, Grif's Martial Band, Bar and Price's Band, escorted the children from their respective schools and marched to accompany them in the songs.

Mr. Brown is ill.
Superintendent J. W. Brown of the West Point is confined to his bed with a severe attack of tonsillitis.

SKULL FRACTURED.

William Gray of Dunbar Fell Down Stairs of Boarding House and May Die of Injuries.

William Gray of Dunbar, aged 65 years, is at the Cottage State hospital with a fractured skull resulting from falling down the stairs to the home hotel on Main street. The accident occurred last evening about 8 o'clock.

The fracture is a bad one and there is some doubt of his recovery. He is resting as easily today as can be expected.

Mixed the Celebration.

Postmaster Clark Collins, John Collins and Ray Crossland left this morning for Fort Hill on a several days hunting expedition. Among other hunters who left for that vicinity were James C. George Munson, T.
J. Mitchell and S. B. Dull.

A RED-LETTER DAY FOR CONNELLSVILLE.

This is a red-letter day for Connellsville, and with the able assistance of all our neighbors we will enjoy the visit of President Roosevelt to the new bridge. The day will long be remembered, in fact, it is not in the annals of the city, but it is a fact. The bridge is now an accomplished fact. Its history and its benefits have been exploited at length and will be repeated again by the eloquent orators of the occasion. But what of the future? The only tangible benefit has been removed from the much discussed proposition for the consolidation of the two towns and the extension of their limits so that by 1910 when the next census is taken we may appear in its printed pages as a city of the third class, the biggest community in Fayette county, the publishing, progressive, self-reliant center of the Connellsville coal region.

The free bridge is only one step in our march toward municipal greatness. The battle has not been fought out. Other engagements await us. Beyond the Young Men's New Haven and over the hills that encompass us are hundreds of suburban populations waiting to be taken into the coming city.

There are a great many claims to the parentage of the free-bridge movement, but history tells us that the movement was not of recent date. The originator has been through many years. It does not detract from the glory of former attempts that they proved to be failures. For there is no energy and public spirit carried the present movement to success any measure of that honor which is their due.

We can all afford to be happy to gather here, to witness the West Penn. Railroad Company. One of the prime free bridge factors, this corporation by the irony of fate is still denied the freedom of the bridge, but it is happy in the hope of an unexpected change in the future.

Come, let us be merry, for henceforth we are free from the bondage of the tollgathers.

Some oblique citizens are reported to have uttered the words "free bridge" in a public place. Every body is welcome to Connellsville today but the crooks and even these undesirable citizens will be allowed to look on if they carefully refrain from heckling or to things that do not reflect creditably on the town.

New Haven's carnival came just in time.

In this year of floods and earth quakes it would be strange indeed if the "brother" could not tell us that the end of all things was close at hand.

Free Bridge Day means in the hunt for season. While the Nimrod take to the woods to seek the small game, the town region folk to the town to stand up the toll-takers.

The State Constabulary are the bug bear in the body politic and they are wholly outside of politics too in spite of the cuts and persistent at the top of the Department as to make politics out of them.

That $100,000 check ought to be some value for the wounded feelings of the Youghiogheny Bridge Company's stockholders.

It is a set question whether last Sunday's business was worth what it cost.

The Italians who defied the Young Men's Association were a little premature. They should have waited until the day.

Broad Ford girl has demonstrated that it is unwise to walk under a ladder but she hopes to have a change of luck in the courts.

It is not safe to play poker even in a barn. The Dundas sports will have to go further down the line. It is safer and more popular to play poker in Uniontown.

The ownership and the management of the Broad Ford distillery may change with the passing seasons but it remains an Overholt still.

The Black Hand hovers over Scott and this time it seems that it is no schoolboy hand.

It is suspected that Todd took the Big Stick with him when he started for the West and Woolly West and he needs to be surprised if we hear the sound of its thumping along the banks of the Mississippi.

Bargain Day was a great success and the merchants of Connellsville are more than ever convinced that the right sort of advertising will do business.

The Legislature has as much right as more reason to fix the price of printing paper at 2 cents per pound as it had to fix the rate of passenger fare at the railroad at 2 cents per mile.

The Point Marion bridge will be built within reason both as to price and to completion.

It's a Red Letter Day all right, but it will not be necessary to put more than one good leg of paint on it.

ST. LOUIS READY.

President Will Make Most Important Speech of His Trip at Mound City Tomorrow.

Special to The Courier

ST. LOUIS, Mo. Oct. 1.—The final touches to the preparations for the visit of President Roosevelt are being put on today. The river front and the downtown sections of the city are taking on a gala appearance. Building after building is one great mass of color from sidewalk to roof, and the national colors are everywhere in the shape of shields, bunting and countless numbers of flags. Especially notable are the decorations of Lads and Merchants' buildings and the elevated road along the levee.

Nearly a score of Governors will be in St. Louis tomorrow morning, and will accompany the President on his trip to Memphis. The commercial and improvement organizations of the Mississippi Valley also will be represented among the thousands of visitors now in the city. The Governors and other noted visitors now here will be guests of honor at the Vellore Phosphate ball tonight.

The chief features of tomorrow's program are as follows: The steam boat, Mississippi, bearing the President and his party, will arrive about 8 A. M. At the landing the civic committees will be extended. The President will be escorted to the mammoth hotel, Alton, where he will be given an address. This address is expected to be the most important; the President will make during his entire trip. A luncheon at the Jefferson Hotel will follow and then the party will leave for another section of the journey, that from St. Louis to Cairo.

The boat will leave St. Louis at 8 o'clock in the afternoon and reach Cairo about 8 o'clock tomorrow morning. The Governors will accompany the President's party using the Alton a great host of the Mississippi.

A great demonstration will mark the President's departure from St. Louis. Every strainer and tug on the river will take part and a flotilla of river craft will accompany the party for miles down the Mississippi.

The entertainment of the President in St. Louis has been left entirely in the hands of the Business Men's League which organization was chiefly instrumental in persuading Mr. Roosevelt to undertake the Mississippi river trip. The officers and many leading members of the League will accompany the President to Memphis to take part in the Deep Waterways Convention to be held here the last of the week. They will make the journey on the Alton, the same boat that will convey the Governors to Memphis.

URSINA BAD.

Mitt Andrews Tries to Paint the Town Red and Has Cold Water Thrown on Him.

Cold water was literally thrown on "Ursina" Andrews' attempt to paint the town red in last night's episode. Mitt Andrews, proper name accumulated a load of dry water and was making the atmosphere around him stone. Corner blue with the line of a comedy he uttered the words "Ursina" Andrews.

Constable John R. Beatty first attempted to squelch the obnoxious character but was soon bowled down and out. Officer John Lowe of the local force assisted by several citizens came to the rescue and sided in getting Mitt to the lockup. There he was so bad that Chief Butler found it necessary to throw several buckets of cold water on him before he subdued up. Information against Andrews charging him with a assault and battery will be made some time today.

Four drunks appeared before Burgess Solomon this morning. Three were sentenced and one paid his fine.

WHITE PAPER PROBLEM.

Owners of Western Pennsylvania Dailies Protest Against Rust Prices.

A second meeting of the Western Pennsylvania Association of Publishers was held at the Hotel Lincoln in Pittsburgh yesterday. The organization will be perfected at a meeting to be held October 21.

The white paper problem was the chief topic of discussion. The present high price of white paper, the members said, robbed the publisher of nearly all profits.

When the trust raised the price of the material to such a high price, American newspaper publishers began patronizing Canadian manufacturers. Learning this the trust had addressed the Canadians by buying 40,000 tons of paper. Now it is impossible to purchase paper without patronizing the trust.

The following resolution was adopted: Resolved that the Western Pennsylvania Association of Publishers demand the action of the American Newspaper Publishers Association in demanding the repeal of the duties on newsprint paper and pulp and other materials entering into the manufacture of paper.

Editor O. J. Surgis of the News Standard, John O'Donnell of the Herald and Genius and H. P. Snyder of the Courier were present from Fayette county.

Theatrical War. Manager Harry Benson, of the West End Theatre Uniontown and the Nixon & Zimmerman forces at Uniontown are engaged in a war of cancellation of dates at the West End for the Grand Opera House, a Nixon theatre.

DOUBLE TRAGEDY.

Johnstown Man Kills Wife and Then Commits Suicide After a Quarrel.

Special to The Courier

JOHNSTOWN, Pa. Oct. 1.—John Miller, 26 years old and single, was today afternoon shot and killed his sweetheart, Miss Rose Miller, 24 years old, and then committed a suicide at the home of his mother, Mrs. Rebecca Miller, in Walnut Grove, Pa., a suburb of this city.

Miller and the woman had just come from town quarreling on the way. She sat down at a table and he stood by a stool and placidly he bowed her head off. He then shot his rifle in the charge carrying away the front part of his head. A lover's quarrel it is only known.

Mrs. Miller the woman killed formerly lived in Pittsburgh. She was the wife of William Miller, but he was killed in the war. She was in the house when the couple quarreled but not when the shooting began.

HIGH CHURCHMEN GATHER AT QUAIN OLD RICHMOND.

Protestant Episcopal Church Conference Begins There Tomorrow and Many Dignitaries Are on Hand.

DIVORCE LAWS TO COME UP.

Possible That the Future Episcopal Ministers Will Be Forbidden to Marry Divorced Couples—One African Bishop Is Present.

Special to The Courier.

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 1.—The Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States are concentrated in Richmond today. On every train distinguished bishops, active clergymen and influential laymen from all parts of the country have been pouring into the city, until even the hotel corridors for once in their history might be mistaken for the vestibules of churches. So numerous thereabout are men of priestly mien. At many of the aristocratic residences bishops and clergymen have found splendid quarters.

At Holy Trinity Church this morning when the sessions of the triennial convention will begin tomorrow, a great throng of churchmen were assembled. The gathering was informal, the gentlemen visiting the convention hall for the purpose of getting their mail and obtaining information relative to their quarters. Among the notable arrivals today were many of the bishops of the church, including the venerable Bishop Tuttle, who will preside over the triennial session. The Bishop of London is another prominent visitor who will receive much attention. J. Pierpont Morgan, with his guests, will arrive tonight or tomorrow morning in his private car and take possession of the private house which he has rented for $5,000 a month.

Tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock the regular sessions of the convention will begin. The day will be ushered in by the celebration of holy communion in all of the Episcopal churches of the city. At Holy Trinity services will be held at 8 o'clock and 8 o'clock prayer and litany will be observed, after which the church will be put in readiness for the ceremonial celebration of the day. At 11 o'clock the bishops will form in procession and march to the church. They will be clad in the robes of their office and will be preceded by the choir. The processional hymn will be sung as the choir and bishops enter the church. Bishop Tuttle will preside over the ceremonies. At 4 o'clock the first session of the convention will be held.

Several if ever before in its history has the triennial convention met with so much important business to transact. Two leading questions which are expected to cause much discussion will be the advocacy of a canon to prohibit absolutely the remarriage of divorced persons by ministers of the Episcopal church, and a plan for the creation of negro bishops.

At the last convention of the church a canon was adopted which permitted the clergy to remarry the innocent party in a case, but only after a year had elapsed from the time of the divorce. As the rule of the church stands now, persons divorced for any other cause than adultery may not be remarried by its clergy.

At the last convention advocates of the canon prohibiting any remarriage of divorced persons were numerically in the majority, but the convention votes by dioceses and the majority was outvoted. It is predicted that at the present gathering they will succeed in having the canon adopted and the remarriage of divorced persons entirely prohibited.

The proposal to create separate negro districts in the Episcopal dioceses in the South, with negro bishops to take charge of them, will meet with strong opposition in the convention. At present no rift on between white and colored communicants exists, and the only negro bishop in the church is stationed in Africa.

In addition to the great questions to come before the convention many others of minor importance will be considered. It is probable that the convention may elect another bishop for the Episcopalians in Mexico. A rearrangement of a large part of the Rocky Mountain region in its relation to the administration of the church is urged, and if the recommendation is carried out it will mean the creation of new dioceses and the election of new bishops. It is probable, in fact, that the present convention will break all records as to the number of new bishops to be elected by it.

In addition to these changes in the far West are several proposed divisions of dioceses. Georgia is to be divided, and there is possible a rearrangement of Ohio, making three dioceses there instead of two. Discussion will also be had as to the disposition of Minnesota and Iowa, where controversies have outgrown present Episcopal forces. It is possible also that the Southern Illinois diocese and that of Pittsburgh may be divided.

The observance of the tercentennial of the landing at Jamestown of English settlers and the establishment of the services of the Church of England in America will occupy some of the time of the general convention, which will be in session about four weeks. A feature of the observance will be the presentation of a thank offering by the men of the Episcopal Church for the progress of the past three centuries.

SPEEDERS PINCHED.

Eight Well Known Uniontown Autoists Prosecuted for Violating the Speed Laws.

Eight well known Uniontown men have been prosecuted by Sergeant L. G. Adams of the State Constabulary for violation of the automobile speed law. A mile was checked off at Uniontown and State Constable on Friday and Saturday checked the speed of autoists as they came and went. Those against whom informations were made on Saturday are J. W. Henshaw, L. D. Lyan, Frank Rosser, I. L. Gray, S. A. Gilmore and T. J. Mitchell for exceeding the speed limit and I. W. Seaman and O. W. Kennedy for failing to display the proper license tags on machines. It is claimed that there was but one tag on Mr. Seaman's machine.

District Attorney Hudson says he intends to strictly enforce the speed law, not only in Uniontown but other parts of Fayette county as well. Prosecutions in Conneltsville would not be surprising. Violations of the law are frequent here not only in regard to speed but on licenses and license plate regulations.

GOOD EFFECT.

Many, old characters say they will leave the county rather than run the risk of being put in the gang. There have been seven in line today, three having been released this morning.

CARR TALKS.

He Makes Response to Welcome Extended the Firemen in Pittsburg This Morning.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 1.—(Special).—The first regular session of the Pennsylvania Firemen's Association was held at the City Hall this morning. The delegates were welcomed by Mayor George W. Guthrie and Woodman N. Carr, Esq., delegate from the Keystone Hose Company, Uniontown, responded in an able address. Carr was only a bit out of breath on the morning, the delegates adjourning at 10:15 a. m. for their lunch. Carr is a member of the Firemen's Association of the Law Committee, who was a participant in an automobile accident on Monday.

The regular business session was begun at 1:30 today and the city is crowded with thousands of guests. The delegates arrived today to attend the convention, which is the largest one yet held.

MISUNDERSTANDING.

Over Engagement of the Scotland Band Caused a Regretful Mixup This Morning.

There was a misunderstanding about the coming of the Scotland Band to the bridge celebration today. The leader of the band, Frank Hardy, received no word until 10 o'clock that the band was to come to Conneltsville early in the forenoon and had his men to lay off to get here only in time for the parade.

3 P. M. Wallace called in Scotland, this morning about 9 o'clock and it was some time before Mr. Hardy could be found and he then stated that he had just then received a letter that the band was to come early in the morning. He had been anxious about the matter and had written to some of the members of the Music Committee, but failed to get any word until too late.

If a Customer's Shoes Hurt Him

He's pretty sure to blame us and not the shoe, so we're very careful in choosing our stocks, but with all this care we would not be able to satisfy every one were it not for the immense stock of shoes we carry. No two pair of feet are just alike. No one style of shoe will satisfy every one.

In presenting our stocks of Fall shoes to our patrons we do so with a great deal of enthusiasm. We are positive of the absolute worth of every shoe we offer—we are positive that the styles are absolutely correct and that the leathers are properly cured and tanned, insuring long and satisfactory service.

Here's a Pointer:

Don't let any dealer tell you that styles are practically the same as last season's. There is a radical change in the styles of lasts for the Fall and Winter season of 1907-'08.

We take pleasure in presenting the modish styles of footwear for the present season in models for men, women and children.

THE VALUE OF PERSONAL KNOWLEDGE

Personal knowledge is the winning factor in the culminating contests of this competitive age and when of ample character it places its fortunate possessor in the front ranks of

The Well Informed of the World.

A vast fund of personal knowledge is really essential to the achievement of the highest excellence in any field of human effort.

A Knowledge of Forms, Knowledge of Functions and Knowledge of Products are all of the utmost value and in questions of life and health when a true and wholesome remedy is desired it should be remembered that Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., is an ethical product which has met with the approval of the most eminent physicians and gives universal satisfaction, because it is a remedy of Known Quality, Known Excellence and Known Component Parts and these won the valuable patronage of millions of the Well Informed of the world, who know of their own personal knowledge and from actual use that it is the first and best of family laxatives, for which no extravagant or unreasonable claims are made.

This valuable remedy has been long and favorably known under the name of—Syrup of Figs—and has attained to worldwide acceptance as the most excellent family laxative. As its pure laxative principles, obtained from Senna, are well known to physicians and the Well Informed of the world to be the best we have adopted the more elaborate name of—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as more fully descriptive of the remedy, but doubtless it will always be called for by the shorter name of—Syrup of Figs—and to get its beneficial effects, always note, when purchasing the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package, whether you call for—Syrup of Figs—or by the full name—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna.
